

JACLYN HATCH

jaclynhatch@gmail.com

313-647-2436 • Detroit, MI ✈

EDUCATION

HENRY FORD M-TEC – Dearborn, MI

2014 Industrial Sewing Certificate of Completion

COLLEGE FOR CREATIVE STUDIES (CCS) – Detroit, MI

2009-2013 Credits toward BFA – Entertainment Arts: Video

Tentative graduation: 2020

EXPERIENCE

PINGREE DETROIT – Detroit, MI

PRODUCT DEVELOPER

2018-present

- Creating patterns, developing SOPs, and monitoring all processes for a small leather goods production line specialized in up-cycling luxury-grade materials from the American auto industry

IRVIN AUTOMOTIVE – Pontiac, MI

PATTERN DEVELOPER

2016-present

- Working directly with automotive and non-automotive OEM customers from early stages of design concept and sketch through the development and creation of prototypes directed with intent for manufacture and feasibility
- Patterning, trialling, nesting, cutting, sewing, and releasing automotive interior components (including front seat, second row, headrests and armrests) with attention to quality standards and program requirements to successfully reach aggressive deadlines
- Skill set includes: industrial sewing, manual drafting, foam scanning and skiving, engineering processing and release, AutoCAD, UG-NX MasterTrim design software, Gerber AccuMark pattern design software, NScan digitizing software, internal job-share and cross-training, knowledge of materials and properties, reverse engineering, cost saving, best practices, Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, After Effects, Final Cut Pro, and the Microsoft Office suite

HENRY FORD COLLEGE – Dearborn, MI

ASSISTANT INSTRUCTOR

2016

- Taught students how to operate and sew on various industrial sewing machines including lock-stitch (flat bed/cylindrical/post/walking foot/double needle), cover-stitch, and overlock on a variety of materials such as woven, knit, vinyl, and leather
- Conducted class projects and demonstrations with attention to detail and quality control

LA DOLCE VITA – Detroit, MI

BARTENDER & SERVER

2016

- Provided front-of-house service in a fine dining establishment with large group private event accommodations
- Knowledge of authentic Italian cuisine, wine, cocktails, and customs
- Memorization and delivery of daily features to guests

SHINOLA – Detroit, MI

SEWING ARTISAN

2014-2015

- Sewed a variety of leather watch straps on an assembly line to meet daily quota requirements and helped reclaim numerous otherwise rejected parts
- Responsible for time management, quality, machine troubleshooting, and training